Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled
-Matthew 5:6

In seeking happiness (the Beatitudes say blessing), people can hunger and thirst after many things. Solomon is an example of one who tried many things: houses, gardens, riches of all kinds, the pleasures of good food and drink, the arts, physical relationships, etc. in order to find satisfaction, happiness, blessing, and fulfillment. In the end, as Solomon writes in Ecclesiastes 2, it was meaningless. A second example is the Lost Son from Jesus' parable in Luke 15. He tried some of the same things with the same result; he too was left empty and hungry.

What is the food and drink that satisfies and brings us happiness and blessing? I'm reminded of the words of Jesus each time I serve communion: "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty" (John 6:35).

Our hunger and thirst must be for the Lord—loving Him instead of the things of the world, believing in Him, and striving to be like Him. This will leave us blessed and fulfilled.
